

The Glory of Christ: The Arrival Luke 2:1-20

The Story

The Glory

Discussion Questions (Read Luke 2:1-20)

1. What aspect of the story amazes you the most? Puzzles you? Challenges you?
2. What aspect of Christ's glory do you embrace most readily on a spiritual level? In what way do you wrestle with this?
3. What aspect of Christ's glory relationally brings you the most comfort in times of distress and why? What aspect brings you the most joy and hope?

"The Arrival"

"Ransom of a thousand words
Spoken before faith gave sight
no crown or swords
to rescue those who had no right

He went in behind the lines
For haters and talkers, for liars and thieves
His arrival perfectly timed
For better and worse, for you and me

Counted along with the lowest rung
This One to Whom millions had sung
Praises and blessing and hallelujahs
Even before He ever was born

Sent, protected and assured slandered, accused yet completely pure
Dead, buried and Risen, salvation secured
Incomparable love found the cure

This One, my Savior
This One, Forever
This One, no other
Jesus Christ
Glory to God.
